

PRIVACY POLICY

Any personal information that you send with a request for advice or information will be used for that specific purpose only. Your details will be added to The Firm's database unless you state that you do not wish this to happen.

The Firm's website does not automatically capture or store personal information, other than logging the user's IP address and session information such as the duration of the visit and the type of browser used. This is recognised by the web server and is only used for system administration and to provide statistics, which The Firm uses to evaluate use of the site.

Occasionally, The Firm may share information with third parties when we are co-operating on joint marketing activities. Any information shared in this way is made available strictly on the basis that it can be used solely for the event concerned and for no other purpose.
